I am also including your textbook list for our program. You will see what textbooks are required for the upcoming term so that you can purchase them in advance. Please note that due to the COVID-19 pandemic and supply chain issues, obtaining hard copies of textbooks may take longer. If you have organized for LINKS Institute to provide your textbooks they will be provided to you in the coming weeks.

Please let me know if you have any questions, we are excited to have you on board!
